

After six years in Poling Hall, the Auxiliaries and Activities Business Center (AABC) will be moving to University Plaza (UP) Suite 150.

The Finance department will be moving the week of May 15-19 and the HR department will be moving the week of May 22-26.

The AABC will continue to have two locations: the AABC SEC office at the Student Experience Center Suite 350 and the new AABC UP office at the University Plaza complex Suite 150. These locations will continue to provide the same services. The AABC UP location will provide Human Resource and Student Employment functions as well as Finance and Budgeting responsibilities for its E&G funded units. The AABC SEC will continue to provide Finance leadership for Student Fee funded units as well as Payroll functions for all AABC units.

