Visitor and Short-Term Parking

• Hourly parking is available at parking meters and Pay Station locations shown on the map inside with a.
• Daily permits may also be purchased with exact cash, debit and credit cards at Pay Stations.

Parking Regulations

Parking permit holders are responsible for understanding and following campus parking regulations listed here and on the parking.oregonstate.edu website.

- Permits are required year-round. Monday through Friday, from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. Permits must be clearly and properly displayed.
- Parking spaces are marked by painted lines and curbs, or signs explicitly allowing parking. Parking is not allowed in areas without such markings.
- All metered parking spaces require payment during regulated times. If the meter is not working, park in another location and notify Parking Services at 541-737-2583.
- Counterfeiting, altering or misuse of any parking permit will result in revocation of the permit in addition to a $300 fine.

Carpools

A 35% discount on parking permits is given to carpool vehicles. A minimum of three people per car is required to qualify. Ten priority carpool spaces are available to carpool permit holders.

Motorcycle Parking

Motorcycle Parking is available throughout campus. Motorcycle Decals are valid in motorcycle spaces only.

ADA

With an Oregon State parking permit and a DMV-issued ADA parking placard, vehicles may park in any ADA space on campus.

Conferences and Events

For conferences and events with more than 20 attendees, contact the Parking Services office for special parking assignments. Daily visitor rates apply.

Parking Citations

Citation fines can be paid online at parking.oregonstate.edu or at the Parking Services office. Individuals may appeal a citation by submitting an appeal form with the payment online or at the Parking Services office within 10 days of citation issuance. Decisions on appeals are final and not subject to further review.

If paid within 10 days, fine amounts may be paid at a reduced rate.

- Vehicles may be booted after three or more unpaid citations. The total amount of all tickets and the boot fee must be paid before the boot can be removed. If the account is not paid in full within 72 hours, the vehicle will be towed at the owner’s expense.
